

St. Louis Chapter of ARMA International

When: September 19, 2019

Where: Syberg's, 2430 Old Dorsett Rd, Maryland Heights, MO

Time: 2:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

IG CEUs: 1.5 (requested)

Fee: $20 for Members and $25 Non-Members. Register and pay on-line or pay at door. Your registration includes appetizers and beverages.

JOIN us for the fall kickoff program of the St. Louis Chapter of ARMA International! It promises to be full of fun, education and opportunity! Please attend!

Maximizing Your Value Program:

Using Cross-Functional Engagement to Achieve Project Goals. Do you ever wonder why some endeavors/projects go smoothly and others flop? Recharge your management skills with Educator, Leslie Gralnick as she discusses best practices for improved project success!

Business Partner Introduction

Meet our business partner sponsoring this month's program who will share industry best practices.

ARMA Regional Leadership Conference

Hear what is new with ARMA from our Chapter Officers.

About our Speaker

Leslie Gralnick

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY:

Enterprise education and communications specialist with 30 years of experience in corporate learning and development; Proven record in building strategic partnerships across business lines, including Compliance, Communications, Marketing, Customer Service and Legal; Design and develop enterprise-wide training incorporating diversity and inclusion messaging

PRESENTLY:

Senior Curriculum Designer and Instructor, Ethics & Compliance, Centene Corporation

EDUCATION:

Master of Education, Adult Education Emphasis—University of Missouri-St. Louis

Bachelors of General Studies Degree, Emphasis in Employee Training and Speech Communication— University of Missouri-St. Louis

Leslie is active in many Community programs.